FRENCH IMMERSION LANGUAGE ARTS (FILA) 10 – 12
Media and Digital Communication 11 (4 credits)

Media and Digital Communication 11 is designed to lead students in exploring, discovering, interpreting, and analyzing the changing role and influence of digital and print media in today’s society. It recognizes that digital literacy is essential to the development of digital citizens. The course will motivate students to reflect critically on how media shapes and influences patterns of behaviour in society, how we communicate, and our understanding of the world.

The course offers numerous opportunities for students to demonstrate their understanding and communicate their ideas through a variety of digital media and communications. They will also explore the new possibilities for creative expression provided by digital media. Students will be able to identify ethical, law-abiding social behaviours that can help them make informed decisions.

The following are possible focus areas in Digital Media and Communication 11:

- media studies: the globalization of the media industry, the influence on user perceptions (misinformation, fake news, incorrect information, caricature), posters, ads, television (reality television, serial dramas, news), humour sites
- digital communication: blogs, video blogs, social media, websites, discussion forums
- media law and ethics
Area of Learning: FRENCH IMMERSION LANGUAGE ARTS (FILA) — Media and Digital Communication

Grade 11

BIG IDEAS

Linguistic variations offer cultural reference points within the French-speaking world.

The life experience, culture, and current context of the audience influence the interpretation of a text.

The media plays a key role in social, civic, and cultural life, influencing the principles and values of a society.

Digital citizenship implies recognizing the impact that new media have on ourselves, others, and the world.

Linguistic and cultural identities are shaped by what we hear, see, read, and write.
