

BIG IDEAS

Listening and viewing with intent supports our acquisition of a new language.

Language and culture are interconnected and shape our perspective, identity, and voice.

The communicative context determines how we express ourselves.

Exploring diverse forms of cultural expression promotes greater understanding of our own cultural identity.

Developing proficiency in a new language provides unique opportunities for careers, travel, personal growth, and study abroad.

Learning Standards

Curricular Competencies	Content
Students are expected to be able to do the following: Thinking and communicating <ul style="list-style-type: none">Recognize how different words are used depending on the audienceDerive meaning in speech and a variety of other texts and contextsAnalyze cultural points of view in textsUse various strategies to increase understanding and produce oral and written languageNarrate stories, both orally and in writingRespond personally to a variety of textsExchange ideas and information, both orally and in writingExpress themselves with growing fluency, both orally and in writingShare information using the presentation format best suited to their own and others' diverse abilities	Students are expected to know the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">increasingly complex vocabulary, sentence structures, and expressions, including:<ul style="list-style-type: none">complex questionssequence of events in storiesexplanation and justification of opinionspoints of viewpast, present, and future time frameslanguage formality and etiquetteFirst Peoples perspectives connecting language and culture, including oral histories, identity, and placeKorean works of artcontributions of Korean Canadians to societyethics of cultural appropriation and plagiarism

Ministry of Education

Learning Standards (continued)

Curricular Competencies	Content
Personal and social awareness <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Investigate regional and ethnic diversity in Korean language and culture• Engage in experiences with Korean people and communities• Analyze personal, shared, and others' experiences, perspectives, and worldviews through a cultural lens• Explore opportunities to continue language acquisition beyond graduation• Identify and explore educational and personal/professional opportunities requiring proficiency in Korean• Recognize First Peoples perspectives and knowledge; other ways of knowing, and local cultural knowledge

BIG IDEAS

Language learning is a lifelong process.	Sharing our feelings, opinions, and beliefs in a new language contributes to our identity.	With increased language proficiency, we can discuss and justify opinions with nuance and clarity.	Exploring diverse forms of cultural expression promotes greater understanding and appreciation of cultures worldwide.	Becoming more proficient in a new language enables us to explore global issues.
--	--	---	--	---

Learning Standards

Curricular Competencies	Content
Students are expected to be able to do the following: Thinking and communicating <ul style="list-style-type: none">Negotiate meanings and perspectives in a wide variety of contextsLocate and explore a variety of Korean textsRecognize different purposes, degrees of formality, and cultural points of view in a variety of textsRespond personally to a variety of textsAnalyze and compare elements of creative works from diverse communitiesRecognize how choice of words affects meaningUse various strategies to increase understanding and produce oral and written languageNarrate stories, both orally and in writingExchange ideas on a variety of topics of interest, both orally and in writingAdjust speech and writing to reflect different contextsExpress themselves effectively, with fluency and accuracy, both orally and in writingShare information using the presentation format best suited to their own and others' diverse abilities	Students are expected to know the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">increasingly complex vocabulary, sentence structures, and expressions, including:<ul style="list-style-type: none">complex questions and opinionssequence of events in storiesneeds and emotionslanguage formality and etiquettemultiple forms of past, present, and future time framesdistinguishing features of regional dialectsFirst Peoples perspectives connecting language and culture, including oral histories, identity, and placeKorean works of artcontributions of Korean Canadians to societyKorean-related resources and servicesethics of cultural appropriation and plagiarism

Ministry of Education

Learning Standards (continued)

Curricular Competencies	Content
Personal and social awareness <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Recognize the regional and ethnic diversity of language and culture• Engage in experiences with Korean people and communities• Analyze personal, shared, and others' experiences, perspectives, and worldviews through a cultural lens• Identify and explore educational and personal/professional opportunities requiring proficiency in Korean• Identify and explore opportunities to continue language acquisition beyond graduation• Recognize First Peoples perspectives and knowledge; other ways of knowing, and local cultural knowledge	