

EFP SPOKEN LANGUAGE 10 (2 credits)

Description

EFP Spoken Language 10 is designed for students who are interested in studying First Peoples' oral traditions and in developing their oral self-expression and communication in a variety of contexts. Within a supportive community, students will work individually and collaboratively to develop their writing skills and create coherent, purposeful, and engaging oral texts for a variety of purposes. This area of choice will provide students with opportunities for performance and public speaking.

The following are possible areas of focus in EFP Spoken Language 10:

- Performance — Ideas include spoken word/slam poetry, poetry recitation, oral storytelling, readers' theatre, radio/podcasts/video posts related to First Peoples' themes.
- Oral Tradition — Ideas include oratory, local story knowledge, and oral history.
- Professional Applications — Ideas include speech writing/presenting, proposals, interviewing, event facilitation, radio/podcasts/video posts (information items) related to First Peoples' themes.

Suggested interdisciplinary links:

- Oral Performance (Arts Education)
